For me it will be a study in how a TV cameraman puts a show together; to you it will be a story about your hometown paper—this Friday evening at 5:30 when Shreveport's Channel 3 presents a short feature on The Star's process (4-color) picture printing.

Erin Houchin, feature photographer for the news department of KTBS-TV, Channel 3, told me over the 'phone the feature is due definitely at 5:30 p.m., with a possible repeat on the 10 p.m. news program.

A not unexpected development in today's news: It appears that the federal trustees put in charge of the Penn-Central Railroad which had been gravely mismanaged by its private managers, have succeeded in losing vastly more money for the railroad's creditors than the private folks ever did.

That figures, if you, like your editor, distrust most government efforts and those who direct them.

In town is Earl Clifton, long-time manager of the Hope office of Arkla Gas, now a resident of Camden. He spotted me first, but I would have known unchanged Earl anywhere had I seen him first.

Connally to Europe on Dollar Crisis

By BILL NEIKIRK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally is going to Germany next week to meet with many of the European government and banking officials most deeply involved in the recent world monetary crisis.

Connally, in office less than four months, is expected to carry President Nixon's message to the American Bankers' Association's international banking conference in Munich that economic recovery in America will not be slowed because of the dollar crisis.

Connally told newsmen Thursday the United States' approach has been to continue economic expansion while fighting to reduce the rate of inflation.

Fair, With Cloudiness Coming Up

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fair skies are predicted for Arkansas again tonight, but the forecast calls for increasing cloudiness Saturday.

The forecast also says the weather will be a bit warmer Saturday.

Lows tonight are predicted in the 50s with highs Saturday mostly in the 80s.

Overnight low temperatures included 46 at Fayetteville, 49 at Harrison, 53 at Jonesboro, 55 at Pine Bluff, 52 at El Dorado, 55 at Texarkana, 54 at Memphis, 50 at Little Rock and 51 at Fort Smith.

JACKSONVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Final summations were begun today at 1 p.m. in the court-martial of Air Force Sgt. Richard Blankenship of the Little Rock Air Force Base.

Blankenship has been charged with assault with a deadly weapon in the shooting of Airman IC. Bernard Gracy March 30 at a Titan II missile silo near Mount Vernon.

Gracy was shot during the changing of the guard at the site. A .38-caliber bullet penetrated Gracy's heart, but he survived.

Capt. Michael Wimms, the prosecutor, said the wounding of Gracy resulted from Blankenship's negligence.

United Europe to Equal U.S. or Russia

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — President Georges Pompidou and Prime Minister Edward Heath met again today to conclude a broad agreement to work for a united Europe rivaling the American and Soviet superpowers.

Pompidou after long secret talks with Heath on Thursday gave the green light for Britain's admission to the European Common Market, removing the biggest obstacle to the British candidacy. Diplomats of the two countries worked through the night to formulate a joint declaration.

The two leaders proclaimed their desire to revive the British-French entente cordiale in an exchange of toasts at a state banquet shortly before midnight Thursday.

"On many essential points," said Pompidou, "and particularly concerning the general concept of Europe, its organization and objectives, our views are sufficiently close to allow us to continue without pessimism."

Heath in reply said he was heartened "to discover in my talks with the president how close are our ideas and aspirations."

Pompidou, harking back to President Charles de Gaulle's crusade against American domination, said unity would permit Western Europe to regain "command of her own destiny" and recover "a purely European concept of civilization."

Although both stressed that much remains to be negotiated before the enlargement of the European Economic Community, Heath said he believes British entry will be settled soon and this will clear the way "for a momentous step forward" toward European unity.

For France, it will mean abandoning more than a decade of hostility toward its British neighbor.

For Britain, it will mean abandoning its 30-year-old special relationship with the United States.

For West Europeans, it should start a march toward a political confederation and the strongest trading area in the world, with a population of 250 million.

For the United States, it will spell fiercer competition for markets.

Trace Woman's Illness to Eating Mercury-Poisoned Swordfish

By MIKE SHANAHAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A New York health officer says the mercury poisoning of a housewife who died of swordfish dramatizes the potential danger facing other "fish addicts."

Dr. Roger Herdman, deputy director of the New York State Health Department, described the plight of an unidentified 44-year-old Long Island woman to a Senate environment subcommittee Thursday.

The mother of three consumed about 10 ounces of swordfish daily for nine months in 1964 and 1965, he said, and lost 45 pounds. She continued her swordfish diet sporadically until November 1970.

Now, he said, she has been diagnosed as a mercury poisoning victim.

The woman purchased the swordfish, all of it fresh from a local market, "because she didn't like fish ... she wanted a nonfishy-tasting fish," Herdman said.

Part-Time Immunity Struck Down

CHICAGO (AP) — The 7th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals has declared unconstitutional a grant of partial immunity to a grand jury witness, which was hailed by the government as a major weapon in its fight against organized crime.

The three-judge court held unanimously Thursday that the partial immunity portion of the 1970 Organized Crime Control Act violates a person's right against self-incrimination.

If government prosecutors "seek to compel a witness to testify," they must grant him full immunity from prosecution, the decision said.

The U. S. Supreme Court agreed Monday to hear an appeal on a decision by the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in California which upheld the law.

The decision Thursday involved the same law used in Seattle Wednesday in jailing Leslie Bacon. Miss Cabon refused to answer questions before a federal grand jury investigating the March 1 bombing of the U.S. Capitol, although she was granted partial immunity.

Her attorneys said they would ask the 9th Circuit Court to set bail until an appeal of her contempt finding is decided.

The ruling Thursday held that testimonial immunity was unconstitutional because, in the case of prosecution, defense attorneys would be helpless in determining or checking how the government acquired its evidence.

Instead, he reasoned, the higher benefits, coming June 1, 1972—just before national convention time—would bear a Democratic label.

2 Patrol Cars at H.S. Collide

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A Hot Springs policeman was injured late Thursday night when two patrol cars collided during a high-speed auto chase in Hot Springs.

Patrolman Jim Collier, 23, was admitted to a Hot Springs hospital. His condition was not known.

Officers said Collier was pursuing an unidentified car at a high rate of speed when his patrol car went out of control and skidded into another patrol car occupied by Patrolman David Cockman, 24. Cockman was attempting to establish a roadblock on Central Avenue near Oaklawn Park at the time of the crash.

Cockman was not injured. The auto that Collier was chasing got away.

Tuna fish fits that category, he said, and "a person eating 10 ounces a day would exceed the maximum allowable intake" set by the Food and Drug Administration.

On May 6 the FDA recommended that Americans stop eating swordfish because the agency's tests of 853 samples showed 95 per cent contained mercury exceeding its 0.5 parts per million standard considered safe.

The FDA ordered some tuna off store shelves last year but has since declared all on the market to be within its 0.5 ppm standard.

Herdman described the Long Island woman as "the first case of human illness in this nation directly attributable to mercury poisoning from ordinary marketable food."

Her condition has improved but her body still contains an abnormally high level of mercury, the health officer said.

SS-Welfare Bill Full of Problems

By EDMOND LEBRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new Social Security-welfare bill remains studded with political prickles for both the Republican administration and the Democratic Congress, even though praised by high figures in both parties.

Even as it was approved by the House Ways and Means Committee, there was a glimpse of the political byplay marking its course.

Thanks to a shift by a conservative Southern Democrat, the committee reversed an earlier decision and by a 13-12 vote added a 5-per-cent Social Security benefit increase, effective June 1, 1972.

By doing so, the committee enhanced the bill's chances, since it is hard to vote against a benefit increase, especially one taking effect in an election year.

But the Democratic majority also scored a subtle political point. The bill already contained a provision that benefits—and taxes—were to be adjusted whenever the cost of living increased as much as 3 per cent. This provision was favored by President Nixon and the Republican members.

One Democrat, asking he not be identified, commented, "If we had let it go at that, there certainly would have been an automatic increase effective Jan. 1, 1973. All during the 1972 campaign, Nixon would have been bragging about the coming increase because of his provision."

Instead, he reasoned, the higher benefits, coming June 1, 1972—just before national convention time—would bear a Democratic label.

Living Costs Up by Only .3 Per Cent

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Grocery prices rose sharply again in April but smaller increases for some housing and transportation costs held last month's over-all rise in living costs to three-tenths of one per cent, the government said today.

The April increases brought the government's Consumer price Index up to 120.2, meaning it cost $12.02 last month for every $10.00 worth of typical family purchases in the 1967 base period.

The Labor Department said the index was 4.3 per cent above a year earlier for the smallest annual rise in nearly three years and that the increase since February was the smallest of any three-month period in four years.

Grocery prices rose nine-tenths of one per cent. Housing costs edged up one-tenth of one per cent, transportation three-tenths, clothing four-tenths, medical care six-tenths and recreation six-tenths, said the report by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The bureau also reported that some 45 million rank and file workers gained 73 cents a week in pay to an average of $124.75, and that after allowance for federal tax deductions and higher living costs, purchasing power was two per cent above a year earlier. However, the buying power of the average pay check was still 1.9 per cent below the record peak of September 1968.

The big rise of nine-tenths of one per cent for food followed an equally large jump in March grocery prices.

Most of the April food rise was due to increases in fresh fruit and vegetable prices.

"Prices of beef and veal, cereal and bakery products and dairy products increased instead of declining as they usually do in April," the report said.

Except for a decline in mortgage interest rates, there were continued rises for most consumer services, including automobile insurance, property insurance, natural gas, medical services and transit fares, the report said.

Some 72,000 workers will receive pay increases from their cost-of-living clauses in labor contracts based on the government price index.

No-Fault Insurance Law Is Near

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers told the Arkansas Association of Insurance Agents here Thursday that he was considering appointing a committee to study the question of no-fault automobile insurance legislation.

Bumpers told delegates to the group's convention that he had "formed no hard and fast judgment" and was anxious to hear both sides of the question.

The governor said he did not want the issue to become a political football as it has in other states. He said one principal concern was whether the no-fault principle should be legislated by Congress or whether the states should be allowed to choose individually. Bumpers said he preferred that Arkansas be allowed to choose its own destiny.

Russia's O.K. of Arms Talks May Cut U.S. Budget

Outcome to Affect U.S. Planning

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new U.S.-Soviet agreement to negotiate limitation of nuclear arms may have averted Pentagon weapons decisions that could have added significantly to next year's $76-billion defense budget.

But, Pentagon officials say, there will be no slowdown in construction of the U.S. Safeguard antiballistic-missile defense system or deployment of multiple-warhead offensive missiles already under way, pending solid developments in negotiating an arms-control pact.

These officials note the two nuclear superpowers have agreed so far only on the framework of negotiations.

Nobody expects the Russians to halt their missile and anti-missile buildup which set off claims of alarm in Washington recently by defense officials who said the Soviets are building new launch bases for huge intercontinental missiles.

Prospect of an offensive weapons limitation probably dims hopes of those urging the United States embark on a new advanced weapon such as the Air Force's $11-billion B1 bomber or the Navy's under water long-range missile system estimated to cost between $10 billion and $12 billion.

Both are early in the development cycle and several years away from a production decision.

Expressing concern about the Soviet weapons growth, the Nixon administration increased funds for the two weapons in the new budget and development is moving ahead at what Laird considers the fastest possible pace.

The momentum of Soviet nuclear weapons advances prompted Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird to tell a newspaper publishers group last month that, unless there is "convincing progress" in the U.S.-Soviet strategic arms limitation talks—SALT—the United States might have to take offsetting actions.

U.S. Control Boosts Penn-Central Loss

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Trustees for the Penn Central Railroad say further "emergency measures" will be needed to bring the nation's largest carrier out of its financial malaise and save it from failure.

The trustees, appointed by a federal court last year to oversee the railroad's reorganization under bankruptcy laws, reported Thursday a loss of $92.5 million for the first three months of this year.

This was $26 million more than the comparative 1970 loss, but less than the railroad's record three-month loss—$197 million for the last quarter of 1970.

The trustees called the Penn Central situation "perilous, requiring urgent emergency measures."

They said they will make new proposals to a federal judge and Congress within two weeks. They are expected to include a plea for further loan guarantees.

Penn Central has $15 million more to draw on from the previous $100 million in federally approved certificates.

Schedule on Draft Vote Is Fixed

By H.L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Key senators reached agreement today for voting over the next two weeks on major issues in the debate on extension of the military draft.

The agreement, scheduled to be ratified by the Senate later in the day, provides for votes June 4 on proposals to do away now with the draft and to cut the House-passed two-year extension to one year.

Votes would be scheduled next week on amendments to boost military pay raises to the higher levels voted by the House and to bar draftees from being sent to Vietnam.

The sentence focusing on an agreement to limit ABMs seemed to lean toward the Soviet position.

Nixon Calls Disarmament Advisers in

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the Soviet-U.S. strategic arms limitation talks apparently entering a crucial phase, President Nixon called his chief disarmament negotiator to a White House conference today.

The President's meeting with Gerard Smith follows by one day his dramatic announcement of "a major step in breaking the stalemate on nuclear arms talks" that has blocked progress in the SALT negotiations with the Russians since last year.

Smith is returning to Vienna to wind up the spring session of the SALT talks and try to win agreement for a new round this summer in Helsinki, Finland.

White House officials said it is this round which will show whether the new push from U.S. and Russian leaders result in real progress.

In his nationally broadcast statement Thursday Nixon said that in secret exchanges "involving the highest level of both governments," the Soviet Union and the United States:

—Have agreed to concentrate this year on working out an agreement for the limitation of the deployment of ABM (antiballistic missile) systems."

—Have also agreed that, together with concluding an agreement to limit ABMs, they will agree on certain measures with respect to the limitation of offensive strategic weapons."

The Soviets issued an identical announcement.

The SALT talks, started in 1969, have been stymied since last fall over whether to include both offensive and defensive missiles in one disarmament package.

The Soviets proposed an ABMs-only deal as a first step. The Americans say ABMs are designed to defend against offensive missiles, so an ABM agreement must be linked to a curb on offensive missiles such as Russia's big SS9s.

White House officials said the joint announcement does not mean either power changed its basic position at the SALT talks. The administration still wants to proceed with its request to Congress for an expanded Safeguard ABM pending further development from the SALT negotiations, they said. In fact, the Soviets are currently constructing more sites for long-range missiles and the United States is proceeding with the Safeguard ABM system, designed to guard U.S. sites against such long-range rockets.

The sentence focusing on an agreement to limit ABMs seemed to lean toward the Soviet position.

Fayetteville 4-Lane Road Is Possibility

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—A member of the state Highway Commission said today that he believes the commission will agree at its next meeting to build a four-lane, controlled-access highway along a 55-mile route between Van Buren and Fayetteville.

J. C. "Jake" Patterson of Lavaca, a commissioner, said he would propose in a "minute order" at the next commission meeting the start of engineering studies preparatory to construction of such a highway.

Patterson said he was confident that the minute order would be approved by the other commission members.

As envisioned by Patterson, the new highway would be built to specifications for the interstate highway system and would follow a route similar to one on which a toll road feasibility study was based.

The highway would begin at Interstate 40 just east of Van Buren, go through the Ozark National Forest, tie into Arkansas 265 near Fayetteville and then link with the south junction of the loop road at Fayetteville.

That route would lie between the present two-lane U.S. 71 and Arkansas 59, which also is a two-lane highway. Patterson said studies had shown that the cost of widening U.S. 71 into a four-lane artery would be as great as constructing a completely new four-lane highway.

Engineer studies to determine the exact path of the highway should begin soon after approval of the minute order, Patterson said. He added that the first contract for construction on the four-lane highway probably would be let in about three years.

Patterson said that he believed the best course would be to build two lanes of the proposed new highway the entire distance between Van Buren and Fayetteville and then to build the two additional lanes at a later date. Federal funds might be available to help finance construction of the last two lanes as an interstate-type road since the first two lanes will be built at interstate specifications, he said.

Traffic studies show that expansion of U.S. 71 to a four-lane facility is warranted, but because of the cost that would be involved in an attempt to widen U.S. 71 a new four-lane road would be more desirable, Patterson said.

Israeli Defy Egyptian Force Plea

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli leaders have defied Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's new call on Washington to pressure Israel into complete withdrawal from the territory it occupied in the 1967 war.

Foreign Minister Abba Eban told a political rally that Sadat is wrong if he thinks Israel can be "squeezed like an orange" into giving up its vital interests. He said he was surprised the Egyptian leader still believes Israel would accept outside dictation.

Speaking in Cairo Thursday, Sadat said he had called on President Nixon to "squeeze and wring" Israel into withdrawing from all the occupied territory.

Sadat also said he would reopen the Suez Canal only if Egyptian troops replaced the Israelis on the east bank of the waterway and if Israel agreed to a timetable for withdrawal to the borders it had before the 1967 war.

Critics Not Going Any Place at GM

By GENE SCHROEDER
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Stockholders challenging policies of General Motors management conceded that they lacked the votes to have their proposals adopted at the annual meeting today, but predicted they eventually would influence its operations.

Spokesmen for Campaign GM, a Washington-based organization that holds 12 shares of GM stock, said they expected 97 per cent of GM's 286 million shares would be voted against their program.

The group seeks a broadened method of electing the corporation's board of directors and disclosure of more information on GM's policies on auto safety, air pollution and minority hiring.

The spokesmen contended that even a 3 per cent slice of the votes—representing about 8.5 million shares—would have a large enough impact on the corporation to lead to eventual adoption of their proposals.

"We expect that while we'll lose at the meeting, we'll have sufficient strength to implement these reforms—either as a matter of corporate policy or as a matter of federal regulations or perhaps legislation in the future," Philip Moore, executive director of Campaign GM, told newsmen Thursday.

Campaign GM was launched last year by a group called "Project for Corporate Responsibility."

Management said publishing the detailed information sought by Campaign GM might benefit groups with special interests. It said a proposal to require that some candidates for director be nominated by GM employees, dealers and customers would result in a "popularity contest."

Spokesmen for Campaign GM said they received pledges of support from a number of universities, unions, pension funds and other groups.

Moore said Campaign GM was defeated last year in its proposal calling for the election of a black director. But he noted that later Dr. Leon Sullivan, a Negro, was named to the board of directors.

"We also asked for a social audit committee, and although that proposal also was defeated, nevertheless General Motors set up what is essentially a social audit committee," Moore said.

Another proposal calls upon GM to abandon its manufacturing operations in South Africa because of that nation's racial policies.

The proposal—opposed by management but supported by Campaign GM—was sponsored by the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States.

N. Vietnam Speeds Up Its Shelling

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The North Vietnamese and Viet Cong increased their shelling attacks in South Vietnam and battled Saigon's troops near the A Shau valley and in eastern Cambodia, military spokesmen reported today.

The Saigon government said there were 24 small rocket and mortar attacks against South Vietnamese military units and civilians during the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. today. The biggest attack was only 10 rounds and casualties were reported light. But it was the largest number of such attacks since April 26.

The government's military headquarters also reported 119 enemy troops killed in fighting at four points near the A Shau valley and at five locations in eastern Cambodia. The Saigon forces also uncovered an arms shop and several munitions dumps containing more than four tons of arms and ammunition, spokesmen said.

Field reports and battlefield communiques put Saigon's losses in the fighting at 13 killed and 45 wounded. Another eight South Vietnamese militiamen were killed and 12 were wounded in an attack on an irrigation project built by American volunteers out of discarded war material 10 miles south of the demilitarized zone.

A U.S. Marine civil action team began the project three years ago. Its purpose was to bring a year-round water supply to lands tilled by refugee Montagnard tribesmen driven from their mountain homes by the war.

As the project progressed, volunteers from the Army, Navy and Seabees joined in during their off-duty time. There was no official U.S. aid; instead the American volunteers fashioned two pumps, two engines and a pipeline out of abandoned equipment.

The system went into operation less than three months ago.

The U.S. Command reported no ground fighting involving American forces, but three Americans were wounded in two rocket attacks on U.S. bases blow the DMZ. And two Americans were killed when small Army observation helicopter was shot down eight miles southwest of Pleiku, in the central highlands.

The fighting near the A Shau Thursday swirled across mountain ranges overlooking the 30-mile-long valley on the east and the north, 375 miles north of Saigon. The action was part of operation Lam Son 720, which was launched April 14.

Saigon headquarters said 53 North Vietnamese troops were killed around the A Shau, 31 of them in a single battle seven miles northwest of A Luoi, which sits on the valley floor. Total South Vietnamese casualties were seven killed and 17 wounded in the A Shau fighting, field reports said.

In Eastern Cambodia, 66 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops were reported killed and an arms shop was reported uncovered. Saigon headquarters said six South Vietnamese troops were killed and 28 were wounded.

Shorter Dean to Be Prison Chaplain

TUCKER PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — The Rev. J. F. Cooley, dean of men at Shorter College in North Little Rock, has been hired as chaplain of Tucker Prison Farm.

Supt. L. E. McGuire of the Tucker unit hired Cooley, a Negro, after Cooley's name was suggested by two members of the state Board of Correction.

Board member William Lytle of Clarksville said he and board Chairman John Haley of Little Rock had suggested Cooley for the job.

The position became vacant April 30 when the Rev. Wayne Haun was killed in an automobile accident.

Cooley has been active in civil rights matters, chiefly in Forrest City. He more recently has been involved primarily with the affairs of the all-Negro college in North Little Rock.

Mrs. Paul Henley, Mrs. Doug Haynie, Mrs. Bob Nason and Mrs. Joe Eason, pictured left to right, are 1971 provisional members of the Hope Chapter of the National Association of Junior Auxiliary.

Mrs. John Robert Graves, provisional chairman, will instruct the new members in 36 hours of training concerning the goals and history of the NAJA, and the community service projects and activities of the Hope Junior Auxiliary.

This will include studies of and visits to the local County Health Dept., Welfare Dept., City board, School board, Child Development Center, School of Hope, public schools, grade school coordinator, Parks and Recreation Dept. and the Thrift Shop.

Forest Service Investigating Fire

ELY, Minn. (AP) — The U.S. Forest Service is investigating the possibility that its own personnel may have touched off accidentally the recent five-day fire in Superior National Forest.

Joseph Harm, acting supervisor of the forest, said Thursday the fire may have been a "sleeper" resulting from slash-

Hutto Takes Prison Post June 1

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Terrell Don Hutto said Thursday that he would assume his new job as state correction commissioner June 1.

Hutto told newsmen at a get-acquainted meeting of the state Board of Correction that he accepted the job because Arkansans had indicated their desire to have a modern prison system. He said Gov. Dale Bumpers and members of the board were committed to that goal.

Hutto, 35, currently is warden of the Ramsey unit of the Texas Department of Correction.

Hutto accepted the job as Arkansas correction commissioner last Saturday after Bumpers telephoned him with the board's offer of the $22,500-a-year job. Hutto said Bumpers' personal call was one of the factors that entered into his decision to take the job.

He said he had a number of ideas on how to reduce the high rate of escape from the state penitentiary. He said they involved staff and management training and impressing on security personnel the need to discover "where the loopholes are."

He said that in his almost four years as warden of the Ramsey unit, a multiple-offender institution with 17,200 acres of farm land, there had been only seven escape attempts, and no inmate made it to freedom.

He said there were probably several reasons for this but one factor was that Ramsey's armed guards are trained employees. He said Ramsey had about 230 employees and 1,820 inmates.

Hutto made no judgment on Arkansas' trusty system under which armed inmates guard other convicts.

"This is a problem I'm certainly going to take up with the board," he said. "I'm not real familiar with all the background of the situation, but I'm going to take a hard look at it."

There are no armed trusties in Texas, he said.

The wedding will be an event of July 16, 7:30 p.m., at Shover Springs Baptist Church. No local invitations will be sent. All friends and relatives are invited.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

MOTHER WANTS TO KNOW

Dear Helen:

I'm very upset about the letter signed "Help" from an underage girl who thought she had VD.

Your advice was to contact the county venereal disease clinic in her area and the parents would not be informed.

I have two teenagers and if anyone treated my children for VD I certainly would want to know that they are headed in the wrong direction. It doesn't make me feel any better to be told the county will cover up their misbehavior!

Something is wrong with this setup. Our tax money is being used to encourage immorality, it seems. I'd sue the county if it ever treated my child without my knowledge.—MRS. R.E.L. AND FRIENDS

Dear Mrs. L.: Would you prefer that your child go untreated (risking chronic disease, sterility, even death—plus the possibility that he will infect others)? This happens when teenagers "would rather die than confess to their parents."

V.D. clinics are fighting an epidemic. Naturally, they would prefer that parents know children's problems, but their greatest concern is with public health. If a young person will only be treated on condition of secrecy, then I say, thank God secrecy is now allowed by law in your state!—H.

Dear Helen: My father disowned me when I became pregnant. My husband and I were married and we've been very happy, but I've never been forgiven. I was told to leave even though I had no place to go. Thank goodness, my man stood by me!

We now have three lovely children. I take them to see my mother whenever I know HE won't be there. She isn't allowed to visit us. I won't go into detail about his other cruelties but, you can imagine, Mom's life is rough... Barren and miserable... She obeys, or else.

The other day our daughter left a much loved doll at "Grandma's" as we had to "vanish" fast. This morning she got a package in the mail. It was her doll, head crushed, body slashed, with a note, w—s and b—s are not welcome here.

Helen, why does a woman put up with a man like that? We won't go back, but what about my mother? She was crying on the phone today. He'd beat her again. Yet she stays.

She could live with us until she gets established in a job. She isn't old, just beaten down. How can we persuade her?—DISOWNED DAUGHTER

Dear Daughter: Your mother is evidently the type who would take almost anything rather than make a decision—or stand up to a man she fears.

Perhaps she knows herself better than you do. Independence might overwhelm a woman so accustomed to slavery.—H.

Dear Helen: Why must cosmetic surgery cost so much? I want to have my breasts enlarged so I'll feel like a whole woman. Upon inquiring, I found the cost would be about $1600 including the hospital. I've read that a complete face lift costs at least $2000 these days—for about four hours on the table and an overnight stay in the hospital. Only the wealthy, it seems, can look their best, but it's the poorer people who NEED these morale boosters.

A new bustline wouldn't help me get a job as a new face might make me so much that I would spread a lot of happiness around in my family—and that's awfully important, especially when we can't afford a great deal else.—FLAT BROKE

Dear Flat: Let's hope some day cosmetic surgery can be everybody's uplift. Even doctors (some of them admit it is now overpriced. Comments, surgeons?—H.

NEW YORK (AP) — Val

Doonican walked won Fifth Avenue Thursday afternoon without causing any heads to swivel. If he were to do the same thing in a month or so, autograph hunters would ruin his window-shopping.

Doonican, very big in the British Isles, is destined to become an instant American television star next month.

ABC will present "The Val Doonican Show," a series of 10 variety programs, on Saturday nights starting June 5.

The singer, on a week's hectic visit to these shores, has been busy trying to build an image. He has appeared with Dick Cavett, taped a show with Mike Douglas and submitted to end-to-end interviews with the press.

Born in Waterford, Ireland, Doonican has been in show business 26 years, doing everything from one night stands, radio and television to command performances. He has endless hit albums and records and his radio and television shows have been British staples for 10 years.

"When I had an offer for an American television show, there were a number of things to consider," he said. "First, nobody here had ever heard of me, so we needed some good guest stars. This was a problem because a lot of American stars dislike doing summer replacement shows—and a lot of others are not available."

He has achieved a pretty good lineup, however. Old friend Petula Clark accepted his invitation, and that helped prime the booking pump.

Des O'Connor, another popular British TV and music hall star, has a very similar deal with NBC, replacing its Wednesday night "Music Hall" for the second time.

Producer Lou Hazam, who has been on a long TV sabbatical, returns to NBC tonight with a documentary about the threat to Venice and its art treasures by industry. If Hazam's track record is a hint, it will be worth watching.

Saturday night brings a pair of specials. First there is an ABC report on the dangers of mine work, and later, on CBS, the finals of the "Miss U.S.A." pageant.

Pakistan War Empties One Village, Puts Refugees in Another

By R. SATAKOPAN
Associated Press Writer

SOBROOM, India (AP) — On the western side of the Feni river, the villages in East Pakistan are destroyed and deserted.

On the eastern side in India, hundreds of thousands of refugees driven from their homes by the civil war in East Pakistan are packed into makeshift camps.

Sobroom and Ramgarh, just 100 yards across the river, both had populations of 5,000 until two months ago. Now Sobroom has about 20,000 residents, most of them refugees, and Ramgarh has almost no one left.

From March 25, when civil war broke out in East Pakistan, until May 2 Ramgarh was controlled by the followers of secessionist leader Sheikh Mujibur Rahman. Then the Pakistani army moved in and, according to eyewitnesses, shelled the city and machine gunned anyone who had not fled across the river.

Today, visitors to Sobroom see no sign of life in Ramgarh, except for a few stray dogs and an occasional soldier on patrol.

Only the district headquarters, occupied by the army, and the charred ruins of shops and homes remain. Many coconut, palm and mango trees are without leaves—burned away by fires that swept the city during the army attack. Refugees are still pouring into Sobroom from outlying areas and officials do not know where they are going to be able to put them all.

The town's only two schools have both been closed indefinitely to provide room for the refugees.

Others are housed under large tents where people live so close to one another there is no free space.

Tripura state, with only 4,200 square miles of territory, has a population of 1.5 million until two months ago. Now it has 2.1 million.

The heavily forested state is normally short of food, and imports about 6,000 tons a month to insure a minimum subsistence for its regular residents. Now it needs 13,000 tons a month.

Indian and foreign newsmen taken on a three-day tour of refugee camps saw similar overcrowding at Petrapole, on the other side of East Pakistan about 60 miles northeast of Calcutta.

By official Indian estimates, which a visiting U.N. team said it would accept, about 2.6 million East Pakistanis have entered four Indian border states in the past seven weeks, causing social and economic problems that appear to defy solution at the moment.

Aside from the immediate task of finding adequate housing and enough food and other supplies—which the Indian government says will cost about $266 million over the next six months—officials have expressed concern that communal violence might erupt between Hindus and Moslems within the 300 relief camps.

To guard against this Hindus and Moslems, traditional enemies on the subcontinent, are being segregated.

Mets Dive for 5th Loss in a Row

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The word was out among the New York Mets: Get Wise. But Rick Wise was just another untouchable for Manager Gil Hodges' Skid Kids.

"We're all right," said Hodges after Philadelphia silenced New York 1-0 on six hits Thursday night for the Mets' fifth straight loss.

They don't look all right. Before the spinout, the Mets were hurtling in high gear with a hot winning percentage and three-game lead in the National League East. Now they're a game behind front-running Pittsburgh and only percentage points in front of third-place St. Louis.

"We've just hit a snag," said Hodges calmly, exuding the posture of a winner. "Fortunately, we're in a position to overcome it."

Position in baseball is everything, but pitching and hitting also play a part. And the Mets have been getting one without the other, when they needed both during the current cold streak.

After the Mets won the first two games of the Pittsburgh series last weekend to take their 14th of 17 games, they lost 4-2 to the Pirates Sunday. Then followed 4-3 and 8-6 losses to Atlanta and 4-1 and 1-0 to Philadelphia on the short road swing.

In Thursday's other National League Games, San Francisco whipped Chicago 8-7; St. Louis turned back Los Angeles 5-4; Cincinnati beat Pittsburgh 5-4; San Diego dropped Houston 4-2 and Montreal cooled off Atlanta 4-3 in 14 innings.

In the American League, it was Detroit 5, Cleveland 3; Boston 5, New York 2; California 1, Minnesota 0 and Oakland 7, Milwaukee 3. Rain postponed Baltimore at Washington.

Gary Gentry, who pitched one of the strongest games in the Mets' Black Week, made one mistake—a gopher ball to Deron Johnson for the only run in the second inning.

"One pitch, one swing," said Hodges, signifying the difference in the game.

Willie McCovey walloped a three-run homer in the ninth to pull San Francisco from behind. The Giants used three-run innings in the eighth and ninth to wipe out a four-run Chicago lead.

The Cubs, who had two homers by Ron Santo, led 6-2 in the eighth when the Giants scored three times on pinch-hitter Fran Healy's bases-filled double.

Then McCovey slammed his ninth circuit shot of the season following walks to Tito Fuentes and Willie Mays.

Steve Carlton's five-hitter and Joe Hague's home run and run-scoring single led St. Louis. Carlton, battered from the box his two previous outings, held the Dodgers to singles by Willie Davis and Richie Allen and a double and two singles by Wes Parker. The tall left-hander, who lost 19 games in 1970, struck out five in recording his third shutout of the year and seventh victory in nine decisions.

Hague's single capped a two-run first inning, then he added the Cardinals' last run with a homer in the eighth. Lou Brock, who knocked in a run with a double in the Cardinal seventh, extended his hitting streak to 16 games.

Bernie Carbo singled in the tie-breaking run in a three-run seventh that carried Cincinnati over Pittsburgh. Carbo drove in Tony Perez, who had singled, with the run that snapped a 3-3 tie before Tommy Helms produced what proved to be the winning tally with a double.

Ty Cline had started the Reds' rally with a single and eventually cross the plate on Perez' single. Pittsburgh had grabbed a 3-2 lead in the top of the seventh when pinch-hitter Vic Davilillo singled home a run.

Nate Colbert delivered three hits, scored two runs and knocked in another as San Diego beat Houston for the second night in a row. Al Sev-

Murtaugh, Pirate Chief, Hospitalized

CINCINNATI (AP) — Pittsburgh Pirate Manager Danny Murtaugh, 53, remained in fair condition at Christ Hospital here today where he was rushed prior to Thursday's game with the Cincinnati Reds complaining of chest pains.

Murtaugh, who has had a history of heart trouble, was stricken in his office 20 minutes before the start of the game. He complained of two sharp pains in the chest.

"He was left with a dull ache in the chest area," said trainer Tony Bartirone.

Hospital spokesmen said Murtaugh would be held for observation for "two or three days."

Murtaugh was attended by Dr. Murray Sheldon, the same cardiologist who attended him for a similar complaint at the same hospital in 1964.

"The cardiogram looked good," said Reds team physician Dr. George Ballou.

Murtaugh had appeared on a pre-game local radio program with Red Manager Sparky Anderson minutes before he was stricken. Batting Coach Bill Virdon took over the team which lost 5-4.

Citizens Wins in Babe Ruth

Babe Ruth League play continued Thursday night in Legion Field with Citizens Bank defeating First National 14-4.

Jim Rhodes was the winning pitcher, striking out 6 batters and allowing 6 hits. Bramlett was charged with the loss, giving up 13 hits.

In the second game, Corn Belt defeated Anderson-Frazier 12 to 9.

Corn Belt jumped off to an early 6-run lead only to see Anderson-Frazier come back with 9 big runs in the third inning. Corn Belt tied the score at 9-all in the top of the 5th and added 3 runs in the 6th to pull away to victory.

Tonight at Legion Field, Blevins will take on Anderson-Frazier at 6:30 and Citizens Bank plays the Merchants team in the second game.

Little League play continues tonight in K-Park with three games, beginning at 6:00.

erinsen bailed San Diego starter Clay Kirby out of ninth inning hot water to preserve Kirby's second victory in seven decisions.

Kirby was touched for a run in the first and survived bases-loaded situations in two innings before the ninth when the first two hitters singled. Severinsen got two outs before a run-scoring single, then coaxed pinch-hitter Jim Wynn into a game-ending bouncer.

John Boccabella's leadoff home run snapped a 3-3 tie in the 14th to give Montreal the victory over Atlanta which had won five of six games. Ralph Garr, the National League's leading hitter, had tied the game with a run-scoring double in the fifth.

BATTING—Willie McCovey, Giants, belted a three-run homer in the ninth inning—he had two singles earlier—to give San Francisco a come-from-behind 8-7 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Detroit Explodes Over Cleveland

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

An anonymous bomb threat was telephoned to Cleveland Stadium during the sixth inning of Thursday night's game between the Indians and the Detroit Tigers. When the explosion finally went off in the 11th inning it was signed by Willie Horton.

The Detroit outfielder slugged a two-run homer, giving the Tigers a 5-3 victory over the Indians.

Elsewhere in the American League, Boston whipped the New York Yankees 5-2, Oakland trounced Milwaukee 7-3, and California shaded Minnesota 1-0. Baltimore and Washington were rained out after three innings with the Orioles leading 1-0 while the Chicago White Sox and Kansas City Royals were not scheduled.

National League scores: San Francisco 8, Chicago Cubs 7; Philadelphia 1, New York Mets 0; Cincinnati 5, Pittsburgh 4; St. Louis 5, Los Angeles 0; Montreal 4, Atlanta 3 in 14 innings and San Diego 4, Houston 2.

Horton, a right-handed hitter, drilled an outside pitch from lefty Steve Mingori over the right-center field fence following a leadoff walk to Jim Northrup.

Earlier, Norm Cash homered for Detroit and Vada Pinson for Cleveland and the Tigers held a 3-2 lead with two out in the ninth and unbeaten Joe Coleman shooting for his fifth triumph. But Coleman walked Fred Stanley and Chuck Hinton and reliever Tom Timmerman gave up a run-scoring single to Ted Ford.

Still, Coleman's 4-0 record represents the "best start in the majors" for the plucky right-hander, who suffered a fractured skull when struck by a line drive during spring training.

The Red Sox exploded against New York's Stan Bahnsen with one out in the first inning on a walk, Carl Yastrzemski's run-scoring double and Rico Petrocelli's third home run in four games. George Scott cracked a two-run homer in the eighth to nail down the Sox' 19th victory in 24 games and boost their lead in the AL East to three games over the Orioles.

Boston plays four games over the weekend in Baltimore.

The Yankees got their runs off starter Bill Lee in the sixth but Bob Bolin came on to retire pinch hitter Curt Blefary with the bases loaded and stopped New York the rest of the way.

Oakland's Chuck Dobson continued his comeback by limiting Milwaukee to six hits in eight innings and Dave Duncan and Mike Epstein hit solo homers for the A's. Johnny Briggs' eighth-inning homer spoiled Dobson's shutout bid.

Clyde Wright, who missed a turn due to tendonitis in his pitching arm, hurled a five-hit game as California edged Minnesota. John Stephenson singled home the only run the eighth off reliever Ray Corbin following Sandy Alomar's leadoff single, Alex Johnson's sacrifice and a walk to Tony Conigliaro.

Rookie Pete Hamm, making his second major league start, battled Wright on scoreless terms for seven innings, allowing only two hits before he was removed for a pinch hitter.

State H.S. Ball Title at Stake Tonight

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Little Rock Catholic and Texarkana meet here tonight to decide the state high school baseball championship.

In semifinal action Thursday night, Catholic defeated Junction City 6-1 and Texarkana edged Bay 6-5 in eight innings.

Tim Ezzi allowed only five hits and struck out five as Catholic zipped to victory. Mark Graves drove in Junction City's only run in the second inning with a single.

Randy Lyons was the losing pitcher.

John Tyler scored the winning run for Texarkana on an error by pitcher Larry Taylor in the bottom of the eighth. The score was tied 5-5 at the end of the regulation seven innings.

Danny Cowling was the winning pitcher for Texarkana.

Barber Shoots 74 in the Colonial

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Miller Barber of Texarkana and Richard Crawford of Little Rock, Ark., each shot a 74 Thursday in the first round of the $125,000 Colonial National Invitational golf tournament here.

R. H. Sikes of Springdale, Ark., had a 77.

George Knudson held the first-round lead with a 67.

Shoemaker Has Eye on Hollywood

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Willie Shoemaker, the world's winningest jockey, is hoping to break a 14-year-old jinx in the $125,000-added Californian Stakes at Hollywood Park Saturday.

Shoemaker hasn't won the Californian since he scored with Social Climber in 1957. He is out to win this year astride Cougar II, a Chilean-bred.

Judgable, an invader from the East where he recently won the Grey Lag Handicap at Aqueduct, looms as the main contender in the Californian with Bobby Ussery in the irons.

Cougar II and Judgable are the co-high weights at 124 pounds. Terlagio and Never Bow, two others in the field of 11, will carry 121 each in the 11-16 mile race.

The Californian headlines the national thoroughbred weekend program with Canomero II in the barn awaiting his chance to sweep the Triple Crown in the June 5 Belmont Stakes.

The $50,000 Top Flight Handicap is listed for Aqueduct, the $35,000 Better Bee Handicap for Arlington and the $34,500 Survivor Stakes at Pimlico.

On Your Toes, a 3-year-old gray gelding who equaled the Pimlico track record at 1 1-16 miles with a 1:42 in his last outing, has attracted attention in the Survivor. Trainer Frank Whiteley Jr. has indicated a good performance by On Your Toes could lead to the colt being entered for the Belmont Stakes.

Other features on Saturday include the $25,000 Cherry Hill Handicap at Garden State Park, the $25,000 Frontier Handicap at Detroit, the $20,000 Sutter Stakes at Golden Gate Fields, the $20,000 Bashford Manor at Churchill Downs and the $12,500 Constitution Handicap at Suffolk Downs.

Bob Bourne Leads at Maumelle

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Bob Bourne, the first-round leader in the $25,000 Maumelle Open golf tournament here, approaches golf philosophically.

"I try not to let anything bother me," Bourne said Thursday after shooting a four-under-par 68. "You've got to be thinking about the next shot, right. So how can you get mad when you haven't even hit the next shot? That's my philosophy and it works for me."

"I feel like you're going to make some bogeys anytime you tee it up. So you just hope you can make some birdies," Bourne said.

Bourne, 27, has won about $4,000 since graduating from the PGA rookie school last November.

"I have tried to keep from making the same mistakes a lot of other athletes make...setting your goals too high," he said. "A lot of players come on the tour and want to kill the world all of a sudden. 'I've got to kind of sit back and see what's happening.'"

Bourne says he knew he wanted to play professional golf since he was a high school sophomore at Oberlin, Ohio.

"I knew I wanted to go south and play golf, so I went to the University of Houston," he said. "It took me a year and a half to earn a partial scholarship. I could have gone to school in Ohio but I didn't want to hit golf balls in a field house all winter."

He graduated from the University of Houston in 1967 after earning two golf letters.

Bourne, who travels on the tour with his wife, has no financial worries. Ivan Roberts of Avon Lake, Ohio, picks up all the tabs.

"He's the greatest," Bourne said. "All I've got to do is play golf. He doesn't want me to have to worry about anything else. This way, when the sun shines, I can work on my game 12 hours a day. When you're playing golf all the time and thinking about it all the time, you've got to improve."

Bourne, who had six birdies and two bogeys Thursday, has a two shot lead over Mike Morley and Ken Fulton in the race for the $5,000 top prize.

Eight others were at 71, including Ben Kern, Bert Weaver, Stan Brion, Bob Erickson, Tim Berg, Mike Mallon, Jim Awtry and Curtis Sifford.

Those at par were Tom Ulozas, Bob Shaw, Rick Massengale, Dick Goetz, Tommy Hanson, Jim Gilbert, Jack Harden and Gary Bowerman.

Bourne made the turn one under par after three-putting No. 9. He recorded birdies on Nos. 10 and 11 with putts of 25 feet and 6 feet and then made another six-footer for a birdie on the finishing hole. He saved par on No. 14, getting down in two from off the green and then savaged par on No. 17 from a sand trap. His 33 was the best score of the day on the more difficult back nine.

Morley three-putted the first two holes but then rallied with birdies on Nos. 5, 7 and 9. He added three more birdies on the back nine, but bogied the par four 11th and the par four 14th.

Fulton was two under on the front nine with birdies on Nos. 4 and 7. He dipped three under with a birdie on No. 11, but lost a stroke on the par five 15th. Fulton went back to three under on No. 16, but bogied the final hole when he attempted unsuccessfully through a sand trap.

Hanson Best State Man at Maumelle

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) —Tommy Hanson of North Little Rock shot a par 72 Thursday to lead the contingent of Arkansas pros in the $25,000 Maumelle Open golf tournament here.

Hanson had nines of 34-38 and was four shots off the pace of Bob Bourne.

Larry Campbell of Fort Smith had 38-35 for a 73 and David Lee of Hot Springs was at 74 with nines of 39-35.

Other Arkansas pros were Pete Fleming, Hot Springs, 76; George McKeown, Pine Bluff, 78; Dave Bennett, Heber Springs, 79; Pete Barker, Little Rock, 80, and Bob Martin, West Helena, 81.

New Manager for California Seals

OAKLAND (AP) — Garry Young is the new general manager of the National Hockey League's California Golden Seals.

Young, 39, former head scout of the Boston Bruins, has signed a three-year contract with the Seals, owner Charles O. Finley announced Thursday. Seals Coach Fred Glover had been serving as general manager temporarily since early in the 1970-71 season.

The Seals were last in the Western Division of the NHL last season and lost an NHL-record 53 games.

Turbine Again in '500,' But Without Hope

By MARTIN E. BIEMER
Associated Press Writer

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — A turbine car is back at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway this year.

Whisper-quiet, silken-smooth, and slow.

Too slow, says designer-builder Howard Millican, to qualify under normal circumstances.

"It's possible we could get in," he said. "But only if we were among the first 33 qualifiers and it rained, or something else happened, to keep anyone else from qualifying."

Then why bother?

—It's helping prove that U.S. Auto Club restrictions on turbines are too severe to allow them to compete.

—It's an educational experience, for Millican and the turbine engineers who help him in their spare time as a labor of love.

—It could be the wave of the future—and Millican could ride the crest.

The turbine cars burst on the scene in 1967, when Parnelli Jones set 18 track records in the car dubbed the "pregnant whale."

In 1968, turbines were back in wedge-shaped Lotus cars. Joe Leonard set qualifying records in his STP Lotus turbine that year which weren't cracked until this year.

Piston engine advocates screamed that the turbines were unfair, and USAC's rules-makers agreed.

USAC handicapped them by restricting their air inlet area. It was sort of like putting a Volkswagen carburetor on a Cadillac. The turbines could run, but they would run out of breath at high speeds.

Millican decided the turbines still had potential. He got an old Gerhardt chassis, rebuilt it completely, and installed an Allison 250 helicopter turbine. The car was entered on the speedway in 1970, but failed to get up enough speed to qualify.

Allison engineers, working evenings and on their days off, helped develop the engine. Millican worked on the chassis. Sponsor Jack Adams footed the bill to enter the car in USAC championship races.

"On the one-mile tracks, we are fairly competitive—due mainly to our special tires," Millican said. "Our corner speed on one-mile tracks is equal to or better than anyone there."

"But on the longer tracks, we just don't have the power to get up to their speeds on the straights."

Brewers Stopped by Dodson

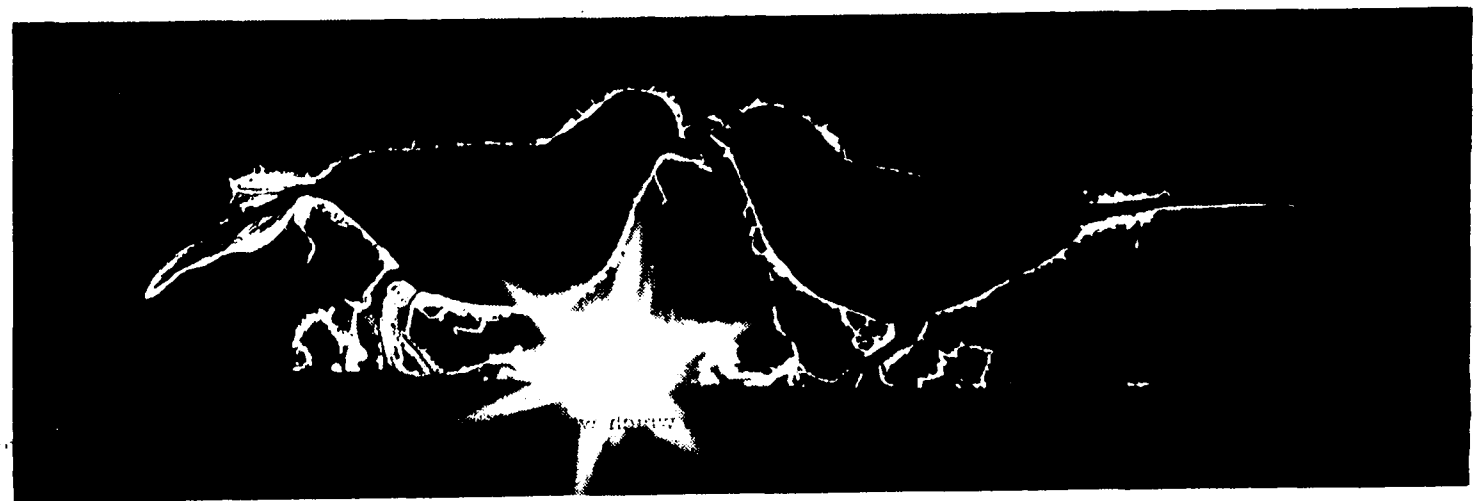

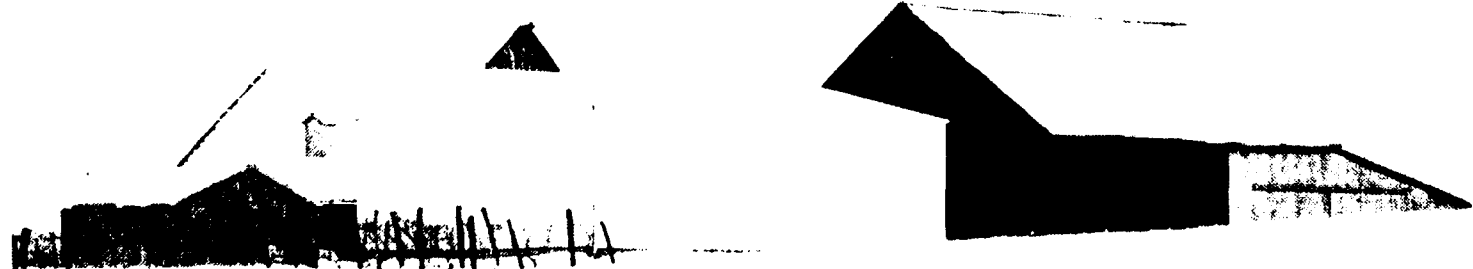

OAKLAND (AP) — Chuck Dobson, sidelined the first five weeks of the season with an arm injury, posted his third straight triumph with relief help from Ron Klimkowski as Oakland stopped Milwaukee 7-3 Thursday night.

Dobson, 3-0, was sailing along with a 7-1 pad until the Brewers scored a run on consecutive doubles leading off the ninth inning and chased the right-hander to the showers.

Government Offers

Most Microbiology Jobs

Bryan T. Haleiwa, Hawaii, asks: "Where can a man with a degree in microbiology begin to look for a job?"

Dear Bryan: The federal government, local health organizations and other governmental agencies involved in medical research appear to be likely places to start job-hunting. Latest available figures show 47,000 biologists—including microbiologists

All One Gives to God

COMES BACK TO THE GIVER

the Earth IS HIS

The soil is God's priceless gift to man. It is a tangible gift neither plant, animal nor man can live without. We depend on soil for just about everything. Although a mixture of dead plants, animals, rocks and other forms of life, it constantly changes through weathering to retain its perpetual productiveness. But man has upset its natural balance with tools and fire and set in motion damaging erosion. Americans are guilty, and that's what we've got to stop. Jeremiah said, and let us say with him, . . . "the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to his heart." Then grieved Jeremiah said, "They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns." Oh, God, let us be good Stewards of His Precious Soil, for, surely This Earth Is His.

Examine the new handle for flaws. Check the grain. It should be straight.

Don't expect a perfect fit when you put the old handle on the new handle. You will find that it goes down on the handle just so far and that's all. Don't force it. When it has gone as far as it will without forcing, mark the point and remove the head.

DO-IT-YOURSELF

By MR. FIX

What generally keeps a good hammer or hatchet from lasting almost forever is a broken handle. If the tool is a good one and has served you well there is no point in parting with it because the handle is broken.

Refitting it with a new handle is not something casually done, not if you wish it to remain the tool it was. Do not use the handle off some other tool. Do not buy the first handle you happen to find in the hardware store. Shop for an exact replacement. Remember that the tool was good because head and handle were matched and balanced.

Consider weight as well as size and shape when you wedged. Some handles have slots already cut for wedges. If you use wood wedges, pre-cutting the slots is necessary. Metal wedges cut their own slots.

If you can find wooden wedges or cut them from the old handle the results will be better. These can be fit to size and smoothed easily. Metal wedges are best used for tightening an old handle that has become loose.

Drive wedges in gently. Too much pressure too quickly may split the wood. A long slim wedge is better than a short, fat one.

With the wedging done, cut away the excess and file it so that it is flush with the top of the metal head.

Seal the handle to protect it, otherwise it may absorb moisture and become warped. Several thin coats of shellac or varnish are ideal. Do not paint the handle. Paint hides cracks that eventually cause trouble.

Waterbed Has First Fatality
LAKE WORTH, Fla. (AP) — An 11-week-old baby rolled off a waterbed and suffocated between the bed and the wall, police said Thursday.

William R. Moeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Moeller, apparently slipped off the bed, police said. The jelly-like consistency of the water-filled bed allowed the baby to squirm deeper into the space between the bed and the wall.

Eventually his head became pressed against the bed's vinyl covering, officers said.

Once the handle is perfectly fitted it will have to be

Help Is Too Much on the Vietnam Issue

By JOHN BECKLER Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP)

House Democrats trying to put a termination date on U.S. involvement in the Vietnam War are getting more help than they want from Rep. Bella S. Abzug.

To the dismay of other anti-war Democrats, Mrs. Abzug, D-N.Y., is leading a fight to make the Democratic Caucus vote on a resolution calling for withdrawal of U.S. troops from Indochina by Dec. 31.

Congressional courtesy, but treated no doubt by justifiable fears of her sharp tongue, deters antiwar members from commenting publicly on her latest effort. But their private comments make it clear they feel she is doing them more harm than good.

It's hard to say which annoys her colleagues more, the fact she is making the fight or leading it. There is a widespread feeling among them that no good can come from pressing the fight in the caucus and that disaster can only result from her leadership.

The antiwar movement in the House has been gaining steadily due largely to quiet, patient, behind-the-scenes lobbying by respected members and outside peace groups. To such tactics, Bella, as everyone calls her, is a stranger.

With the quiet patience of a bulldozer she has shattered the traditional image of a freshman member of Congress and emerged in five short months as a highly vocal, voluble, larger-than-life champion of the peace movement and all who join it.

When Bella disclosed her intention to present her resolution to the monthly Democratic Caucus Wednesday, members who had sponsored a similar effort two months ago and were casting about cautiously for a follow-up move tried to disavow her.

The earlier effort ended with a compromise supporting withdrawal by Dec. 31, 1972, after the original proposal was defeated 101 to 100. No one was particularly happy or unhappy with the outcome but most were content to let the matter lie.

Not Bella. In the intervening months eight members who voted with the 101 have switched to support a Dec. 31, withdrawal and 13 who were absent have pledged support. The chances are good the caucus would adopt the original resolution now and Bella wants to find out.

Unable to persuade her to back down, the Democrats stayed away from Wednesday's caucus in droves, depriving it of a quorum and forcing adjournment before any action was taken. This probably will happen as long as Bella persists.

St Bernard Saves Horse

DECATUR, Ill. (AP) — A 6-year-old dog which saved a blind horse was honored Thursday by the Champaign Humane Society and the dog's owner was presented an award.

Hooligan, a St. Bernard, saved the life of a 23-year-old blind mare named Missy last November. The horse had strayed from its home and crashed through an ice-covered creek.

The dog aroused its owner, Fritz Connor of rural DWitt, and led him to the horse. The owner rescued the horse.

The National Report on What's Happening

Down to Earth New Magazine

By ERNESTINE GUGLIELMO

PROFITS FOR PEACE—A & M Records announced that the royalties from Ode's "Celebration" album from the 1970 Big Sur Festival will not go to the artists (Joan Baez, The Beach Boys, Merry Clayton, Kris Kristofferson, Country Joe McDonald and Linda Ronstadt), but to the Institute for the Study of Non-Violence in Palo Alto, Calif., the United Farm Workers and War Resisters International.

EARTH DOESN'T HUSTLE THE STARS—A new magazine, folks. A spectacular nationally distributed magazine called Earth has been on the market now for about six months. The editor, Jim Goode, formerly with Life and Playboy, prides himself on the fact that Earth is not a "groupie publication." Although the magazine is staffed primarily with young people (median age —23), Jim is quick to add that they are not groupie editors who try to sell personalities to readers.

"Earth deals with musicians in terms of their music, not their images. Talent is the important thing; we're not star-hustlers."

Some of the particularly good features from Earth are "The Underground Guide to the College of Your Choice," regular sections on film, record, book and theater reviews, and "Underguide," which covers several cities every month, noting the highlights of the town, such as meeting places, bookstores and head shops. In addition, there are powerful stories on ecology, censorship, education and the changing times in general.

Earth is also unique in the fact that the staff does not write or edit the stories. The editors assign the pieces, may cut them for practical space problems, but never change the wording. So the individual style and approach is left intact. The reporting is a human and personal representation of events and the only demand that the Earth staff makes is that real names be used by the writers. According to Jim, Earth is working on "the transfer of images through words and pictures, the equivalent of a series of films in print." The writing is fresh and young and the photographs and art work are spectacular. So far Earth is on-target in dealing with major issues that have been neglected by much of media. Look for the issue dealing with the first free high school in California. You might be able to pick up a few pointers.

SOUTHERN COMFORT ON THE ROCKS—Ian Matthews, the leader, writer and producer for the group, Matthews Southern Comfort, is going off on his own. The group's Decca album, "Later That Same Year," provided them with a winner, particularly with the single hit, "Woodstock." Ian will be making his first solo album for Vertigo label called "If You Saw Thro' My Eyes."

North's six no-trump is a slight overbid since 16 opposite 16 only add up to 32. However, it is the type of overbid that wins in the long run if declarer knows what he is doing.

West led a club which he felt was the lead least likely to help declarer. East won with the ace and promptly returned a heart. The moment of truth had arrived at trick two.

South knew that East would lead the heart whether or not he held the king, so a finesse would be a 50-50 proposition. He wouldn't need the finesse if spades were going to break 3-3, but that is only a 36 per cent chance. Thus, the finesse appears to be the better way to try for 12 tricks.

If you have looked at the East-West cards you will see that the finesse is wrong and spades don't break. However, South justified his partner's confidence by making the hand anyway.

He refused the finesse because there was an extra chance if he did. That chance was to find the king of hearts and the long spades in the same hand.

After taking the ace of hearts, he simply cashed all the clubs and diamonds making sure to win the last trick in his hand. Everyone was down to four cards. North held four spades; South three spades and the queen of hearts and poor West had had to throw away the king of hearts or a spade.

Sheep Shearing Time in Hempstead

Joe Salls of Burtram, Texas, a small town near Austin, along with one of his helpers, Jerry Escamilla, came to Hope May 19th to shear 100 sheep for raisers, W.T. Spradling of Hope, Rt. 4; Roy Fry, Fulton, Rt. 1; Carl Howell, Hope, Rt. 2 and Howard Milam, Hope, Rt. 1. Mr. Salls and his crew of five had just cropped 15,000 sheep in Texas and he and Jerry came to Hope as a favor to his good friends, the Spradlings.

To be of more value the wool is cut in one continuous layer. This takes experienced clippers. An average of eight (8) pounds of wool was shorn from each animal here and the Texas visitors commented on the good quality as well as quantity of the wool. They expressed the opinion that Southwest Arkansas could have a profitable sheep market if enough farmers would become interested.

The All Events went to Shirley Anderson, Prescott, with a total of 1820. Katherine Kalba and Vinnie Holt tied for second place and Jimmie Nickolas placed third.

The Singles was won by Ella Loe of Prescott with a score of 659. Placing 2nd was Vinnie Holt, and Katherine Kalba took third.

CIA Charged With Hiring Mercenaries

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clifford P. Chase has accused the Central Intelligence Agency of violating a congressional ban by secretly financing mercenary soldiers in Laos.

The New Jersey Republican said in a Senate speech Thursday he had learned from government sources "there are 4,000 to 6,000 Thai troops in Laos and the U.S. government through the CIA, is paying them."

"There are presumably government funds being paid to Thailand," he said. "But Congress has never voted a penny to pay Thai troops in Laos."

Congress last year prohibited payment of U.S. funds for mercenaries in Laos, except to help free American prisoners of war or facilitate U.S. troop withdrawals.

Case is a member of the Foreign Relations Committee meeting in closed session today to hear a report on Thai operations in Laos from two staff aides, James Lowenstein and Richard Moose, just back from Indochina.

Case asked why he should "have to learn of important agreements our government has made by reading the newspapers, by talking privately with government officials who do not wish to be quoted and by listening to foreign radio broadcasts?"

He said he asked Undersecretary of State John Irwin about the mercenary issue at a hearing May 3 and was told: "Any discussion of the Thai troops would be proper for an executive session."

Case said he wrote Secretary of State William P. Rogers about it a month ago and has not received an answer. "I am sure that at some future time," Case said, "an administration representative will sit down the Foreign Relations Committee behind locked doors and inform us how and why the United States is paying for Thai troops in Laos."

"But this will be months after the fact, and we shall undoubtedly be told about an ongoing program which would be difficult to stop even if we were so inclined."

If the United States has reached an agreement with Thailand to finance and support Thai troops in Laos, Case said, "This is an apparent widening of the American involvement in Southeast Asia, and the Administration should have consulted with us before embarking on a new policy."

"And unless there were extraordinary reasons—and I can think of none—the American people also should have been informed."

NEW YORK (AP) — For the third straight night a new high was set Thursday in the off-track betting on the harness races at Roosevelt Raceway. The New York City Off-Track Betting Corp. announced that Thursday's handle was $271,886 compared to $268,660 Wednesday and $253,974 Tuesday.

To Dedicate Johnson Library

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Lyndon Baines Johnson Library will be dedicated Saturday in a mixture of pageantry, ceremony, nostalgia, and maybe protest.

President Nixon, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew and many of former President Johnson's boyhood friends from the Hill Country are among the 5,000 invited guests who will gather before the eight-story building on the east campus of the University of Texas.

Agnew will join Johnson and many president and past officials in a motorcade from Bergstrom Air Force Base to the library, while Nixon makes the trip by helicopter.

An antiwar group announced Thursday it would release a cloud of black balloons when the university band plays "Hail to the Chief" on Nixon's arrival. Several groups have said they would assemble just outside the tightly secured dedication area and try to disrupt the ceremony.

The half-hour dedication—12:30-1 p.m. EDT—will be carried live by all three television networks.

President and Mrs. Nixon will be given a private tour of the library by the former President and Mrs. Johnson before the ceremony.

Nixon will make the dedication address from a temporary stand outside the library. Johnson will make brief remarks. The invocation by the Rev. Billy Graham, a personal friend of both, and the benediction by the Rev. George Davis of the National City Christian Church in Washington, will complete the program.

Man Dies in Tractor Fire

WEST SILOAM SPRINGS, Okla. (AP) — Roy D. Anglin, 62, of Siloam Springs, Ark., burned to death in a farm accident Thursday about three miles southwest of this tiny eastern Oklahoma community.

Anglin was mowing grass when his tractor overturned, pinning him by the foot. The tractor caught fire and Anglin was burned.

His wife suffered some burns trying to free her husband from under the tractor.

Bob Stephens Heads 4AA W. District

Coaches and administrators for the new Div. 7AA athletic district (formerly 4AA West) met Wednesday evening to elect new officers, establish admission prices for the various sports, and clarify several matters in football, basketball and track.

Bob Stephens of Arkadelphia was elected president of the group succeeding Bill Hunt of Malvern who did not seek reelection after a two year term. George Branch of Fairview was elected vice president.

Supt. R.H. Shaddock was re-elected secretary treasurer, no other person has held this post. Stanley Cheshier of Crossett was elected member at large on the officers staff.

Adjustments were made in the price structure of admission for high school athletic events. In some instances adult prices were changed in other instances the student admission was changed.

The admission structure for the 1971-72 school year is as follows:

Senior football: Adult $1.50, Student $1.00.
Junior and "B" football: Adult .75c, Student .50c.
Basketball: Adult $1.00, Student .50c.
Track: Adult .75c, student .50c (except dist. meet).

It was clarified that home football teams would wear the dark color jerseys. Also admission policies were set on support organizations, such as band pep clubs, cheerleaders, etc.

Basketball Senior district champion will be determined by a double round robin schedule. The round robin champion will not play in the post season tourney. The post season tourney winner will play a one game playoff with the district champion for the purpose of seeding in the state tourney bracket.

The district junior basketball tourney will be continued as in
